Discover Your Personal Style

Your personal style tells a story – let's find out what yours says!

This style test has 17 questions, each with 6 answer choices from A to F. There are no right or wrong answers — just pick what feels most like you. If more than one fits, select them all, as long as they reflect your real style.

You'll think about what you enjoy wearing — from colors to weekend looks — and start to see why some pieces stay in your closet while others always feel right.

At the end, add up your letters to discover your style type. You'll get a clear picture of your wardrobe story, define the core of your style, and see how it connects to your everyday life.

A - Relaxed

Easy, relaxed, and practical — think jeans, cotton shirts, hoodies, sneakers. Whether sporty or laid-back, this style is approachable and down-to-earth. Comfort comes first, without overthinking details.

B - Classic

Timeless and refined, built on wardrobe staples like tailored blazers, button-down shirts, chinos, and neutral colors. Clean lines and polished details make this style reliable and appropriate. A man with this style values quality and coordination.

C - Sophisticated

Sophisticated and put-together, with every detail considered from head to toe. Sleek fabrics, sharp tailoring, and harmonious color choices create a powerful, modern look. This style communicates confidence and prestige with ease.

D - Heart breaker

This style is all about confidence. Fitted shirts, sharp jackets, and well-cut looks highlight self-assurance. Colors like black, deep blue, or red add intensity, while accessories, like men's jewelry accentuate the look. It's a magnetic style that is powerful and appealing.

E - Creative

Unique & artistic, mixing colors, textures, and layers in unexpected ways. Vintage pieces, standout accessories, or experimental combinations create a look full of individuality. This style is all about self-expression and breaking away from the ordinary.

F - Trendy

Fashion-forward and always ready to try what's new. From the latest cuts to trending fabrics, this style follows what's current and stylish. It shows a keen eye for what's "in" right now & makes an impression.
